Gentlemen:

I acknowledge with thanks 3 copies of UNIVERSITY TEACHING OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS and 5 copies of LE PROBLÈME DES MATIÈRES PREMIÈRES received yesterday on consignment. Three copies of KOKORO listed on your invoice have not come through yet.

Our space here is becoming rather cramped, and I think we had better ask you in future to send us no more than two copies of new publications with the first shipment, letting us reorder as we require more. Japanese material we have no sale for, so one sample copy is all we should receive in this category for the present at least. I shall try to get a good sale for the material you have just sent and will communicate with you again should this be the case.

I enclose an order for material required by one of our customers today.

Sincerely yours,

Elizabeth P. MacCallum
